The Companies Act, 2013 has enforced sweeping changes to the mind-set of corporate and their managers alike. Codified roles and responsibilities, higher penalties, disclosures have made the position of directors more demanding. As one moves along with complying with the letter and spirit of law, there may be many questions which are not answered by the relevant section itself. A plethora of rules, notifications, case laws and standards of the ICAI and ICs also need to be looked into. With this background, the book takes a comprehensive approach to understand the requirements of the Office of a director, his roles, responsibilities, liabilities in the light of the relevant sections, decided cases and the applicable Secretarial standards, when it comes to procedural aspects like Board and Committee meetings. For ready reference updated rules for appointment and management of directors, key managerial personnel, meeting of Board and its regional expert practitioners and academics. For easy comparison, each country report follows the same structure, from preliminary discussion on the provisions of a guarantee to its negotiation, drafting, and enforcement. Focusing on specific issues to consider at every stage, each chapter provides detailed information and guidance on such aspects as the following: . who can issue guarantees; . limitations as to the type of obligations which may be subject to a guarantee; . issues relating to the protection of the contracting parties; . formal requirements which need to be complied with; . stamp duties or other tax payable; . presence of implied terms; . legal framework applicable to joint and several obligations; . modification of the situation; . conditions for release and actions to be taken to ensure a valid release; . opening of bankruptcy proceedings against the principal; . court enforcement; and . incorporation of uniform rules. Each chapter includes references and model guarantee forms that readers can use to draft their own documents. Invaluable to corporate counsel and law firms with an international practice, this peerless handbook will prove the first order of business in trade negotiations across Europe, among European nations themselves as well as with their global partners.
