The haunting yet whimsical quality of this Amy Bernon original is truly refreshing. Sung from the viewpoint of a wanderer who has returned home to share all of their experiences, it includes many positive references to friendship, nature, and growing up. The ending is bittersweet as the wanderer departs again, but it provides a poignant finish to a charming concert piece for your younger choirs.

This lighthearted elementary level piano solo perfectly portrays the fun of chasing fireflies on a summer evening. Eighth-note patterns represent the chase while staccato notes depict the "points of light" displayed by the fireflies. The left hand moves from bass clef to treble, crossing over the right hand to play some of the staccatos. The tonal center is on G, with changes between major, minor and mixolydian in 4/4 meter. An optional teacher accompaniment adds to the fun.
