How Do I Love You?

Fear Nothing and Live the Extraordinary is intended to help you see your privilege and responsibility as a Christian, to live up to your calling, and fulfill God's extraordinary plan for your life. "Call to Me, and I will answer you, and show you great and mighty things, which you do not know." Jeremiah 33:3 We have been given the privilege to have part in the great commission to go, share the gospel, and make disciples! We ask the Lord time and time again to use us and transform us, but when He opens the door of opportunity to step out and grow our faith, many shy away, become fearful and ignore His call to live out His extraordinary plan and purpose for their life. It clearly states in Scripture, "Without faith it is impossible to please God". In other words without stepping out of our 'fear zone', it is IMPOSSIBLE to please God, let alone fulfill our purpose as a Christian in a world that so desperately needs to know the love of God. To fulfill our God-given purpose, we must discover the awesome truths of confidence, strength, wisdom and great love the Bible teaches us, so we can say with boldness, "HERE AM I LORD, SEND ME!"

When Steve Curto and his fiancée Camre were expecting their son, Camre suffered a devastating and permanent brain injury resulting in complete and irreparable memory loss. Although she looks and sounds normal, she cannot remember anything from her past, and she is unable to form new memories in the present. This is the true-life account of one man's determination to create a family with the woman he loves even though she doesn't have a clue who he is, or even they have a child. Steve Curto proves that real love isn't hearts and flowers, but showing up every day, doing what has to be done, and never letting go. It is, in his words, always telling yourself, "You've got this!" The title comes from a time after her brain injury when Camre sat on the couch, looked at Steve and said, "I don't know where I am. I don't know who you are. I don't know why I am here, but I know I love you."

taking center stage on many college campuses. For himself, Walker was too busy earning an economics degree, playing soccer, and completing his marine reserve officer training course to merely get involved in a protest. He has graduate school in his sights, but the Marine Corps has other plans for him. Upon graduation, Walker is commissioned a second lieutenant and soon finds himself in the vortex of the Vietnam war. While dealing with the death and personal injury suffered from deadly combat in the Vietnam conflict, Walker must come to grips with the loss of his first love, Lupita Viviano-Sanchez. Providing insight into the turbulent times of the 1960s, To Love Again tells the story of a decade marked by social and political unrest, in which generational and racial norms of an era were being challenged and cultures and cultural classes began to intercourse and collide.
