Knowledge is power, and this huge, completely updated 14th edition of "The Little Red Book" of firearms values provides buyer, sellers, traders and collectors the power they need to identify and price more than 15,000 models of rifles, shotguns and handguns. Guns & Prices focuses on non-military cartridge firearms manufactured from 1835 to the present. Its content is based on data collected from auctions, gun shows and retail gun shops. The 14th edition is the biggest one ever, with hundreds of new models added, along with updated values, and a page count of 1360. Listings are arranged from A to Z by manufacturer. Whether used as a desk reference or carried along when shopping for a specific model, Guns & Prices is the affordable, trusted source for firearms enthusiasts.

Gun Digest Book of Suppressors

Firearms made since 1900 are far more numerous than those made before 1900. Many of these post-1900 firearms are found at auctions, arms retailers, in advertisements, and as 'young' family heirlooms. Much more affordable and plentiful than pre-1900 collector-grade arms, many of these post-1900 guns are increasingly viewed as collectible, valuable assets. This all-new expanded edition helps collectors identify firearms, evaluate conditions, and determine values. Detailed specifications and current values from specialized experts are provided for domestic and imported handguns, rifles, shotguns, and commemorative firearms. Heavily illustrated with more than 8,000 arms, each listing includes descriptions and values in three grades of condition, according to the NRA's "Modern" standards. A new 8-page color section hosts many popular arms.
